Series Assessment-Parts 0.01-0.12

This series has been intentionally designed to help students of the bible and those seeking out greater understanding on biblical theology by emphasizing:

- Scripture first approach!
- Opportunity to Engage with GODS's Voice and Your Voice- Without Interference
- Decreasing the Distance Between You and the Word
- Observation Before Conclusion
- Engagement with the Word of GOD -Before Doctrine
- Evidence Before Tradition
- Independent Evaluation Rather Than Memorization
- Helping Students to Connect the Dots-
- Bring the Patterns Closer to View- So You Can See Them Yourselfes - Helping you to become an active Investigator of the Biblical text vs a Passive Recipient of Spiritual Truths You Are Unable to Track or Trace Through The Word of GOD.

For all of the above, I encourage you to take this assessment. If you have completed Step 1- Part 0.01-0.12, I hope you will use the RSVP Box to submit your responses to the questions. If short on time, but there is a question or concern that you would like to address; send me the RSVP for that question only so that I am able to respond and hopefully make this a better experience. God Bless You.

The Person, Presence and Power of the Holy Spirit

1. If the Holy Spirit gives wisdom to Bezalel (Exodus 31:1-5; 35:31), reveals knowledge to Daniel (Daniel 5:11, 14), and grants wisdom and revelation to believers (Ephesians 1:17-18), what consistent role does the Spirit appear to fulfill throughout Scripture?

Response:

2. Job 33:4 states that the Spirit made man, while Ezekiel 37:14 declares that the Spirit restores life. What conclusion can be drawn regarding the Spirit's relationship to creation and restoration?

Response:

3. The Spirit came upon Balaam (Numbers 24:2), Saul (1 Samuel 10:10), Azariah (2 Chronicles 15:1), and Zechariah (2 Chronicles 24:20). What common activity resulted when the Spirit came upon these individuals?

Response:

4. Isaiah 63:10 teaches that the Spirit can be grieved. What does the ability to be grieved suggest about the nature of the Holy Spirit?

Response:

5. According to Ezekiel 36:27, the Spirit causes God's people to walk in His statutes. What role does the Spirit appear to play in obedience and spiritual transformation?

Response:

6. Compare Isaiah 11:2 with John 16:13. What similarities do you observe between the Spirit's ministry in the Hebrew Scriptures and the Spirit's ministry in the New Testament?

Response:

7. Acts 5:3-4 connects lying to the Holy Spirit with lying to God. Based solely on Peter's statement, what observations can be made regarding the authority and significance of the Holy Spirit?

8. Joel 2:28 predicts that the Spirit will be poured out upon sons, daughters, old men, and young men. How does this prophecy expand the understanding of who may receive the Spirit's empowerment?

Response:

9. Ezekiel 37:1 shows the Spirit directing a prophet, while Ezekiel 2:2 shows the Spirit enabling a prophet to hear God's voice. What do these passages reveal about the Spirit's role in guiding God's servants?

Response:

10. After examining all of the passages in this study, which single function of the Holy Spirit appears most frequently: Giving life? Revealing truth? Empowering service? Producing wisdom and understanding? Guiding God's people? Use Scripture references from the worksheet to defend your conclusion.

Response:

Final Synthesis Question: Using only the evidence presented in this worksheet, write a one-paragraph summary explaining what the Scriptures reveal about the Person, Presence, Power, and Operations of the Holy Spirit. Support your answer with at least five Scripture references.

Response:

Thank you for your feedback.

Your responses help ensure that the course remains focused on careful examination of Scripture, thoughtful discussion, and meaningful learning.
